1. In Poznan, near the place where the Citadel stood before it was destroyed, there is a supply officer's school (Szkola Oficerska Sluzby Zaopatrzenia). Neither the Citadel nor the artillery barracks which were located on Ul. Solna will be rebuilt.
2. An engineer regiment is located in the borough of Debiec which is in the southern part of the city. This regiment has a training field in Debiec and some newly erected training establishments along the Warta River.
3. An infantry and a KBW (Internal Security Corps) regiment is located in the western suburbs of Poznan on Ul. Generala Swierczewskiego (formerly Bukowska). Farther west is a residential quarter where families of Soviet officers are quartered. There was said to be a section of the MVD.¹
4. A Polish military unit is stationed in the camp located north of the suburb of Lewica which is about 3 miles west of the city. This camp was constructed in 1952. Soviet troops were stationed here until 1953.
5. An armored officer's school and armored regiment are located in the suburb of Golecia which is about 2 kilometers north-northwest of the city. Courses are often given at this school for commissioned and non-commissioned officers from other armored regiments.
6. A motorized infantry division is stationed the year around on the Biedrusko training field which is located about 15 kilometers north of the city at Warta.²

1. Probably KGB (Committee of State Security).
